1. Clicking the 'read and agree to' button in the 'margin trading agreement' (hereinafter referred to as 'the agreement') on this website means that you have fully accepted all terms of this agreement.
2. Your margin trading on this website is a voluntary transaction conducted by yourself according to your own economic situation while knowing fully of the relevant risks, this website and any third party bears no liability.
3. Carrying out margin trading on this website, may result in remarkable profit for your investment, but there are also greater investment risks. In order to make you better understand the risks, we listed several risk types of leveraged transactions according to relevant laws and regulations, administrative rules and relevant national policies, please read them carefully before enabling your leverage. The risks of your leveraged transactions on this website include but are not limited to:
 - (1) risks of digital assets themselves: the digital assets market is new, unrecognized and may not grow. At present, digital assets are mainly accessed by speculators, while application in retail and commercial markets are relatively few. Therefore, the price of digital assets is susceptible to frequent, remarkable fluctuations, which brings a negative impact on the investment of digital assets. The digital asset market has no price limit like the stock market, and trading is open 24 hours a day. Due to the limited currency circulation, the price of digital assets is vulnerable to the impact of banker control and global government policies, which means that the price may rise several times in a day, and the price may fall by half in a day. Therefore, all the economic losses caused to you by the reason of digital assets are borne by you.

(2) policy risk: due to the formulation or modification of national laws, regulations and normative documents, digital asset transactions may be suspended or prohibited at any time. If the transaction of digital assets is suspended or prohibited due to the formulation or modification of national laws, regulations and normative documents, all the economic losses caused thereby shall be borne by you.

(3) Internet and technical risks: this website can not guarantee an impeccable security of all information, programs, texts, etc. contained in this website, nor will not be interfered and damaged by any viruses, Trojans and other malicious programs. Therefore, it is your personal decision to log in, utilize any service of this website, or download and use any program, information, data, etc., and undertake the risks and possible consequent losses. At the same time, there are also risks in using the online trading system, including but not limited to the failure of software, hardware and Internet links. As the website cannot control the reliability and availability of the Internet, the website will not bear any responsibility for distortion, delay and link failure.

(4) Force Majeure risks: This website shall not be liable for any failure or delay of service caused by any force majeure or third party behaviors beyond the control of this website, as well as any loss caused to you by such reasons. Force majeure includes but is not limited to: network equipment maintenance, information network connection failure, computer system failure, telecommunication system or other system failure, power failure, hacker attacks, bad weathers, accidents, strikes, labor disputes, riots, uprisings, chaos, lack of labor force or means of production, fire, flood, storm, explosion, war, bank or other partner delinquencies, collapse of digital asset market, government actions, judicial or administrative orders.

(5) market risk: This website does not guarantee the correctness and applicability of relevant market analysis and market evaluation. For the information or suggestions you have obtained or will obtain from the introducer or any other institutions and employees, this website does not control, support or guarantee their accuracy or integrity. All risks arising therefrom shall be borne by yourself and this website bears no liability.

(6) risk of being sealed up and frozen: When the rightful authority presents the corresponding investigation documents and requires the website to cooperate in the investigation of your account on the website, or takes measures to seal, freeze your account or transfer your asset, the website will assist in providing your data or conducting operations as required by the rightful authority, the website does not undertake any liability for the resulting privacy disclosure, non-operable accounts and financial loss, etc.

(7) other risks: you will lose money due to lost account, lost password, improper operation, poor investment decision-making, etc.; loss caused by online entrustment and malicious operation of others; loss caused by entrusting others to carry out leveraged transaction on this website on your behalf; other accidents and losses not caused by this website; the above losses will be borne by you.

(8) special notes: when you participate in the leveraged transaction on this website, you should conduct risk control by yourself, evaluate the investment value and investment risk of digital assets, and make sure that you are capable of bearing all possible losses resulting from the investment; you should trade according to your own economic conditions and risk tolerance, and be aware of the risks of digital assets investment. When you make leveraged investment in digital assets, there is both the possibility of profit and the risk of loss. The risk prompt of this Agreement does not reveal all risks of digital asset leveraged transactions. Please be fully aware of this. There are risks in the market and investment should be cautious.

4. There is a great risk in leveraged trading, and the website will not bear any legal responsibility for the risk that leveraged trading will be forced to close due to various factors such as server gateway bottleneck, website access instability, etc.

5. In case you've opened leverage trading on this website, and the margin rate is less than or equal to 30%, your position will trigger forced closing. The system will buy or sell your assets according to the real-time entrusted order price on this website to repay the loan applied. If the price fluctuates violently and the system cannot close the position, resulting in financial loss of the platform, this website has the right to recover the loss from you.
