17. RISK DISCLOSURE

You should not deal in these products or engage any of these services unless you understand the nature and the exposure to risk. You should also be satisfied that the product is suitable for you in light of your circumstances and financial position. Different instruments involve different levels of exposure to risk, and in deciding whether to trade in such instruments you should be aware of the following factors concerning trading the derivatives products in ANC.

a) FUTURES

Transactions in futures involve the obligation to make, or take delivery of the underlying asset of the contract at a future date, or in some cases to settle your position with cash. They carry a high degree of risk. The "gearing" or "leverage" often obtainable in futures trading means that a small deposit or down payment can lead to large losses as well as gains. It also means that a relatively small market movement can lead to a proportionally much larger movement in the value of your investment, and this can work against you as well as for you. Futures transactions have a contingent liability and you should be aware of the implications of this, in particular the margining requirements.

cash. Investing in contracts for difference carries the same risks as investing in a future or an option and you should be aware of these as set out in paragraphs A respectively. Transactions in contracts for difference may also have a contingent liability and you should be aware of the implications of this.

18. INTERNET DEALING

You acknowledge that the internet is, due to unpredictable traffic congestion and other reasons, an inherently unreliable medium of communication and that such unreliability is beyond our control;

Trading on the internet is not instantaneous and several seconds may elapse between the time when you give your order via the internet to us and the time when it is received by us, in which time the market may have moved and your order may be implemented at a different you further acknowledge and agree that there are risks of misunderstandings or errors in any communication and that such risks shall be absolutely borne by you;

You acknowledge and agree that it shall not usually be possible to cancel an instruction after it has been given;

The time shown by our electronic logging system and the information contained on our server shall be conclusive between us as to the exact time of receipt of any messages or order and as to the accuracy of the information.

19. FORCE MAJEURE EVENTS

We may, in our reasonable opinion, determine that an emergency or an exceptional market condition exists (a "Force Majeure Event"). A Force Majeure Event shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

- Any act, event or occurrence (including without limitation any strike, riot or civil commotion, hostilities, foreign intervention, governmental actions, natural disaster, Act of God, an interruption of power supply or electronic or communication equipment failure) which, in our opinion, prevents us from maintaining an orderly market in one or more of the investments in respect of which we ordinarily deal in Contracts;
- The suspension or closure of any market or the abandonment or failure of any event upon which we base, or to which we in any way relate our quote, or the imposition of limits or

If we determine that a Force Majeure Event exists we may in our absolute discretion without notice and at any time take one or more of the following steps:

- Increase your deposit requirements;
- Close any or all of your open Contracts at such closing level as we reasonably believe to be appropriate;
- Suspend or modify the application of all or any of the terms of this agreement to the extent that the Force Majeure Event makes it impossible or impractical for us to comply with the term or terms in question;
- Alter the last time for trading for a particular Contract;
- Take or omit to take all such other actions as we deem to be reasonably appropriate in the

21. RISK WARNING & DISCLAIMER

The facilities we provide are available only to experienced investors with sufficient financial resources to trade in our investment products. The following statements are intended to make you aware of and disclose to you the potential risk and loss in respect to the trading on the financial markets. You must familiarize yourself with the nature of CFD trading, the terminology used and the procedures involved before you enter into any contract. Our rolling spot contracts and CFDs are based on highly leveraged margin trading; as with any derivative instrument, such contracts carry a very high degree of risk and trading such instruments may expose the investor to substantial losses as well as gains. Accordingly, we will classify you as a private Client. You should not proceed with this arrangement unless you have carefully considered that it is appropriate for you and are satisfied with these terms. Investors should note that to protect their interests, we may set zero stop orders where no client order has been placed to minimize losses. In this event, clients cannot lose more than their initial commitment.

22.CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

We provide herewith a summary of the policy we maintain in order to manage conflicts of interest in respect of the duties we owe to our clients.

GENERAL

Conflict of interest can arise between ANC and you as a client or between your interests and those of another client of ours. We aim to establish and maintain and operate effective organizational and administrative arrangements with a view to taking all reasonable steps to prevent conflicts of interest from constituting or giving rise to a material risk of damage to the interests of our clients.

DISCLOSURE POLICY

We aim to keep a record of the kinds of activity we carry on in which a material conflict could arise or has arisen, and, in doing so we take account of the activities of other members of our firm and of companies. We also maintain procedures to maintain appropriate independence between members of our staff who are involved in different activities, for example, through the operation of information barriers, the segregation of duties and responsibilities and maintenance of a policy of independence which requires our staff, when providing services to a client, to act in the best interests of the client and to disregard any conflicts of interest; and, in some circumstances declining to act for a client or potential client.

DISCLOSURE: GENERAL

Where our arrangements to manage conflicts are not or cannot be sufficient to be reasonably confident that risks of damage to a client's interest will be prevented we aim to disclose the general nature and/or sources of conflicts before carrying on business for the client. This is to allow the client to consider whether to ask for more information and whether to continue with the service; we do not aim to provide detailed, highly specific or comprehensive information.

GIFT AND HOSPITALITY

We do not prohibit our staff from receiving small gifts and minor hospitality from other parties with which we do business but only where in the opinion of a director or senior manager it is at a level that is not lavish or excessive and only where it will not impair our duty to act in the best interests of our clients or other legal or regulatory obligations.
